IMPORTANT— By checking this box, the committee verifies that it qualifies as a "terminating committee" as that term is defined in 11 CFR 116.1(a), plans to terminate and does not intend to raise contributions or make expenditures except for the purpose of paying winding-down costs and retiring its debts. (Only a terminating committee may settle debts for less than the full amount owed. A committee that plans to continue raising contributions and making expenditures cannot file this form.)

A. List terms of the initial extension of credit and nature of the debt. ▼

Marianne 2020 for President owed L2, Inc. $66,000 to fulfill their contract for the national voter file. L2 has agreed to reduce that payment to $35,000. The $35,000 payment will be accepted as payment in full, with any other obligations on the part of the Campaign and/or Marianne Williamson and her heirs, etc., to L2 being excused.

If yes, list the terms of any additional payment agreement(s): ▼

C. If the creditor is a commercial vendor, does the creditor's usual and normal business involve providing the same type(s) of goods or services that it provided to the committee? No ☐ Yes ☒

D. List steps by the creditor to collect the debt: ▼

1. Continually reached out to the campaign organization requesting payment.
 2. L2 was put in touch with an individual responsible for winding down campaign and campaign debt.
